++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
A wet and breezy day for most.

Today:
Widespread rain will ease through the morning, with scattered showers and sunny spells developing into the afternoon. These showers will be heavy at times, but less risk of thunder than recently. Breezy winds at times. Maximum temperature 15 deg C (59 deg F).

Tonight:
Occasionally heavy evening showers will linger overnight, easing slightly as they do so. A cloudy night for most with limited clear spells, although frost-free. Minimum temperature 7 deg C (45 deg F).

Friday:
A cloudy start, with cloud gradually breaking up through the day leaving afternoon sunny spells. Scattered showers likely throughout, heavy at times along western coasts. Maximum temperature 14 deg C (57 deg F).

Outlook for Saturday to Monday:
A band of rain will cross the country early Saturday, then unsettled with sunshine and showers for the rest of this period. These showers heavy and possibly thundery at times.
